

633 PRAISE AND PRAYER CONCERNS, Wednesday, February 27, 2008

Church Prayer Needs

Praise the Lord for those who signed up for small groups and pray for the leaders as they open up the Word of God - for it does have a we need for life & godliness.

Pray for all those who will be coming during the time of focused celebration of the Sacrifice of Love in life of Jesus

Pray for those leading the search for our next Worship Pastor - wisdom, discernment etc.

May we as individuals and as a church share the gift "the treasure of Jesus". It is His desire to be the God of all who call upon His name. Pray for our church that we will have a united heart for others.

633 PRAISE AND PRAYER CONCERNS

Yes, "This is the day that The Lord has made-let us rejoice and be glad in it." We have many reasons to rejoice...the ministry of Servants' Quest to the homeless people of Baltimore has done a super job this fall and winter...Terry Frombach heads up this outreach...several teens have professed Christ the past two Wednesday night Bible Studies...Chris and Steve are their leaders...there are several of our lay people involved in visitation, and are doing an excellent job. Peter Nordlund is heading up this ministry and doing a great job. So let us rejoice!

Now may we encourage you to join us in faithful, fervent prayers for...

1. Missions: Chuck and Margie Wright are ministering in Kenya (Feb. 18-March 14)... Pray for Project Street Kids...as they reach out to the children in poverty in Haiti, The Dominican Republic, Honduras, etc...Joann Mekis is deeply involved in this great ministry.
2. Pray for our satellite churches at Dilltown (Mel Nycum, Pastor) and First Baptist -Nanty Glo (Pastor Ray Sr.). Pray for real spiritual and numerical growth. This winter has been a difficult time for these churches.
3. Let's continue to pray for a genuine revival to sweep across our land. It can happen. Let's all pray for The Lord to do a mighty work in our local church among His people.
4. Pray for those who serve as care-givers to the hurting of our fellowship. There are several. Let's do our utmost to support them.
5. Pray for all of our people working in the medical field-doctors, nurses, physician assistants, chiropractors, etc. Pray for them to do it as unto The Lord. Pray for their health too.
6. Pray for our people involved in the transportation industry—truck drivers, bus drivers, air line pilots, taxi drivers, etc. Pray for their safety.
7. Our men and women serving in The Armed Forces around the world to be kept safely. We must not forget to pray for their families as they are apart.
8. Our "hurting" people need to know we care about them. Pray especially for our under and unemployed to soon find gainful employment, marriages in difficulty need our prayers...so do the elderly, shut-ins, lonely, single parents. Reach out to help however you can. 9. People need The Lord.
10. Our Known Sick and Shut-ins, pray for Peter as he leads 4 others in the Visitation ministry to about 100 shut-ins, widows and widowers. If you would like to be involved in visiting or calling to Talk to these in need please call the church and ask for peter or e-mail: peter@emmanuelbaptist.net Attention: Visitation Ministry. Praise the Lord He has moved the hearts of some to serve in this way!